BEHOLD — Frequently Asked Questions

What is BEHOLD?

BEHOLD is a Catholic night created for students to encounter Jesus in the Eucharist through worship, a relatable message, Eucharistic adoration, confession, and community.

Who may attend?

All students in grades 7–12 are invited.

Does a student need to be Catholic?

No. The night is explicitly Catholic and centered on Eucharistic adoration, but students of every background are welcome. No one will be pressured or expected to know what to do.

What will happen during the evening?

The evening will include live music, a youth-centered Catholic message, Eucharistic adoration, an opportunity for confession, and socializing with friends afterward.

Is there a cost?

No. BEHOLD is free.

Where and when is it?

Wednesday, September 23, 2026, from 7:00–8:30 p.m. at The Venue at Boulder Flatts in Grand Island.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

How do registration and transportation work?

Each parish should use its normal youth-ministry registration and transportation process. Families should follow the instructions provided by their parish.

May students come on their own or bring friends?

Yes, friends are welcome. Families should still follow any registration, check-in, transportation, or permission requirements communicated by the parish or host team.

Will photos or video be taken?

Yes. Event photography or video may be used to share future BEHOLD nights. The host team should communicate the approved media-consent process before the event, and families should follow the provided instructions.

What should a student bring?

Nothing special is required. Students may bring a journal or Bible if they wish
